

American Dreams in the Media

Find a newspaper or magazine article (print or online) that describes the success of an individual. In a paragraph, answer these questions. Include the article with what you write.

1. What aspects of the person's success are emphasized? (some possibilities: family life, wealth, fame)
2. According to the article, what was the greatest factor in their success? (luck, connections, hard work, etc).
3. Does the article give the idea that their success is something a lot of people could do?
