

Chapter Two

In Chapter 2, Fitzgerald presents the reader with a series of powerful image. Some of them have almost a surreal quality about them.

- Read the text provided and decide what is being described.
- List the details Fitzgerald gives.
- Sketch or create a visual representation of the scene using original sketches, magazine pictures, or pieces of fabric.
- Attach an index card to your picture that includes a quotation from the text that best captures the scene. Write a short explanation of the idea suggested by the image of the scene. For instance, the valley of ashes may suggest the idea that Americans have polluted the environment through their carelessness.
